

Rafael Sanchez Bio

Rafael Sanchez is a multiple Emmy-award winning Anchor and Reporter at Fox59/CBS4 in Indianapolis.

He co-anchors the 4 p.m. news "First at Four" and advocates for people seeking solutions to a problem through the station's franchise segment known as #CallRafael.

Rafael's daily goal is to be community involved and invested. He participates annually in more than 70 community events. His specialty is helping groups raise their fundraising goal by bringing focus, vibrancy, and fun. As the son of immigrants from the Dominican Republic, Rafael lends his time and energy to charities that champion education, promote self-empowerment & compassion, and encourage leadership and civic responsibility. For the past four years, the garden charity, which he co-founded and co-managed, harvested and donated more than 18,000 pounds of fresh produce & eggs to local food pantries to tackle food insecurity.

Rafael came to Indiana from the Bronx, New York to attend Franklin College of Indiana where he triple majored in Journalism, Political Science, and Spanish. Currently, he proudly serves on the Franklin College Board of Trustees.

He has been married for more than 30 years to an amazing, recently retired, kindergarten teacher. They are the proud parents of two incredible young professionals.
